- Partner Care introduction
- History Microsoft
- Microsoft changes last 5 years
- The new “NCE” billing model, price increases and deadlines
- Basic administration, tenant & Azure
- Transforming / linking customers the new NCE style
- Answer remaining questions

STEP 5

2nd Hour: Check if Microsoft NCE business is landing the correct way

- Check the changes in the Ingram Micro Cloud Marketplace
- Check changes in the Microsoft portals
- Check if all the Microsoft business went through the system the correct way
- And a lot more...

Partner Care is compliant with all the new rules and guidelines Microsoft presented.

HARDWARE-EXPERTS

COMPUTERS • ONDERDELEN • REPARATIES

We were already selling Microsoft products, but what a puzzle it was to get through the jungle of rules and websites to put in a claim with MS. So, we stopped doing this, until we were introduced to Partner Care. They set everything up for us afresh, well-organized and clear; they cleaned up accounts etc. We are now able to concentrate on our core business, with Partner Care as our internal MS specialist.

Quibus

Especially when a company is Silver or Gold eligible the help from Partner Care is essential. With their support plan, or even better their hour-bundle, your Microsoft account will be optimized and incentives tuned. The cost for Partner Care is most of the time return within the first couple of calls. As a company owner it's not the discussion if to activate the Partner Care service, but when. Good service, excellent knowledge!
